

YOUR CHOICES

We believe in giving you choices about how your Personal Information is used. Below are some ways that you may exercise these choices, including how to change or correct your Personal Information and how to unsubscribe from marketing communications from us.

We encourage you to review this entire Privacy Notice to fully understand the choices you may have, such as allowing or blocking cookies, online behavioral tracking and advertising, asking for your Personal Information to be deleted, or asking what Personal Information we have collected from you. Review the "SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICES" section below for additional information about choices that may apply based on your location.

When you set up an account, sign in or log in on one of our Platforms, you can access, correct, or update your choices and settings. If you receive email marketing communications from us on behalf of any of our brands and want to opt out of receiving such communications from that brand in the future, you can opt out by clicking the "Unsubscribe" link at the bottom of the promotional email. Similarly, if you receive direct mail from us and no longer want to receive it, you can opt out of future mail by e-mailing us at privacy@levi.com. Please be sure to include your full name, mailing address and e-mail address along with the types of information you do not want to receive. It may take up to 8 weeks to process an opt-out from direct mail.

Some services will allow you to accept or reject use of geolocation technologies but, if you don't accept, you may not be able to enjoy certain features on our Platforms (such as the full "find a store" option).

Unless otherwise explained to you in advance, you are not obligated to provide your Personal Information to us. If you decide not to provide your Personal Information, we might, in some instances, not be able to provide you with a product or service. Additionally, if you have opted out of certain services, such as marketing communications, you may still hear from us for other purposes such as needed to fulfill your orders or responding to Customer Service inquiries.
